Maryann Goebel

Executive Vice President and Chief Information Officer

Maryann Goebel is the Executive Vice President and Chief Information Officer of Fiserv, Inc. (NASDAQ: FISV), a Fortune 500 Company. Headquartered in Brookfield, Wisconsin, Fiserv provides information management and ecommerce systems and services to the financial industry. Goebel reports directly to the CEO and has oversight responsibility for global IT infrastructure, technology governance and spearheading programs to enhance efficiency and innovation of the company's technology resources.

Goebel joined Fiserv in 2009 with more than 30 years of progressive technology experience, including 15 years as a senior technology officer for some of the world's leading companies. Prior to Fiserv she served as executive vice president and CIO for DHL Express in Bonn, Germany, where she managed an organization of 1,500 associates with responsibilities that included global express delivery into 200 countries.

Prior to this, she held executive positions with a variety of complex technology organizations including seven years cumulatively with General Motors, where she held the position of CIO for North America, and CIO for GM Europe where she managed an IT staff across 25 countries. Goebel was with PepsiCo Business Solutions Group, where she was CIO, Frito-Lay North America; Bell Atlantic where she rose to Vice President, Information Systems and Chief Information Officer, Bell Atlantic NYNEX Mobile; and technology management and information systems positions with Texas Instruments, ARCO Oil and Gas Company and The Southland Corporation. She began her career as a scientific systems programmer analyst with Philadelphia Electric Company.

Goebel earned a bachelor of science in mathematics at Worcester Polytechnic Institute, Worcester, Mass. She will be located in Fiserv's Norcross, Georgia offices.
