

Fiserv Corporate Performance Ratings

Lists recently published by top American business magazines

Fiserv
Rank:

1 FinTech 100 - American Banker, November 2006

The American Banker annually works with industry analyst firm Financial Insights, Inc., to rank the largest suppliers of information technology to the U.S. financial services industry.

Fiserv
Rank:

97 2007 Info Tech 100 - BusinessWeek, July 2007

BusinessWeek ranks publicly-traded information technology companies with revenues of at least $500 million on four criteria: return on equity, shareholder return and revenue growth (which are given equal weight) and total revenues (which is weighted).

Fiserv
Rank:

367 Forbes 400 Best Big Companies in America, January 2007

Forbes assigns companies with $1 billion or more in revenue into 26 industries and ranks them against their industry peers on five-year and 12-month sales and earnings growth and total return to shareholders.

Fiserv
Rank:

486 Fortune 500 Largest American Companies, April 2007 (#2 in Financial Data Services Category)

Fortune magazine's annual Fortune 500 ranks America's top companies by revenue. The magazine also analyzes corporate performance by evaluating the listed companies according to profits, assets, shareholders' equity, market value, earnings per share, total return to investors and number of employees.

Fiserv
Rank:

1048 Forbes 2000 The World's Leading Companies, April 2007

Forbes scores the world's biggest corporations according to a composite ranking of sales, assets, profits and market value.

JPMorgan Chase

The Supplier of the Year Award, February, 2006

The JPMorgan Chase Supplier of the Year Award recognizes excellence by suppliers globally who demonstrate superior performance in quality, integrity, innovation and value.

