Connect enables managers to work and scale with much greater efficiency. We're pleased to be an early adopter of this exciting Fiserv technology."

Asset Manager Connect enables asset managers to increase efficiency and perform job tasks faster and more accurately, leaving more time to focus on strategic investment management. Trades for multiple sponsor programs can be imported, routed and monitored intra-day, more easily than with previous technology. Managers in model delivery programs can communicate model changes to multiple destinations with a single click, as well as access program data reports, saving time. Simplified access minimizes the occurrence of trading errors from manual data entry of orders and models on multiple systems. By accessing more sponsors, asset managers can expand their business and increase volumes and revenues faster.

"The scalability, ease of use, and simplicity of the Fiserv solution is extremely impressive," said Daniel J. Genter, President and CEO, RNC Genter Capital Management. "We are able to take on SMA sponsor relationships, regardless of size, secure in the knowledge that Fiserv technology will effectively manage that growth. The flexibility of the Asset Manager Connect infrastructure allows us to add additional business and increase volume while maintaining the excellent service levels our sponsors and clients have come to expect."

"Accessing multiple sponsor platforms can be cumbersome and time consuming as asset managers try to increase distribution in managed account and model-delivery programs," said Cheryl Nash, president, Investment Services, Fiserv. This simplified connectivity can enable firms to keep pace with changing customer demands, helping to best serve and grow their client base and increase volume and scale."
