Three reasons to act now:

1. Regulators and investors want it
2. Consumers demand it
3. Competitive pressure

A Mortgage Ecosystem is Essential:
- Streamlined origination process
- Lower origination costs
- Seamless integrations

Mortgage Momentum from Fiserv is the industry’s first digital lending environment to house the entire mortgage lending process—from marketing and origination to secondary marketing and loan servicing. Our holistic approach to the digital mortgage process allows lenders to improve loan quality, mitigate risk and shorten approval and closing processes while reducing costs and enhancing the borrower experience.
