

Weiland BRMedge™ Consulting Services

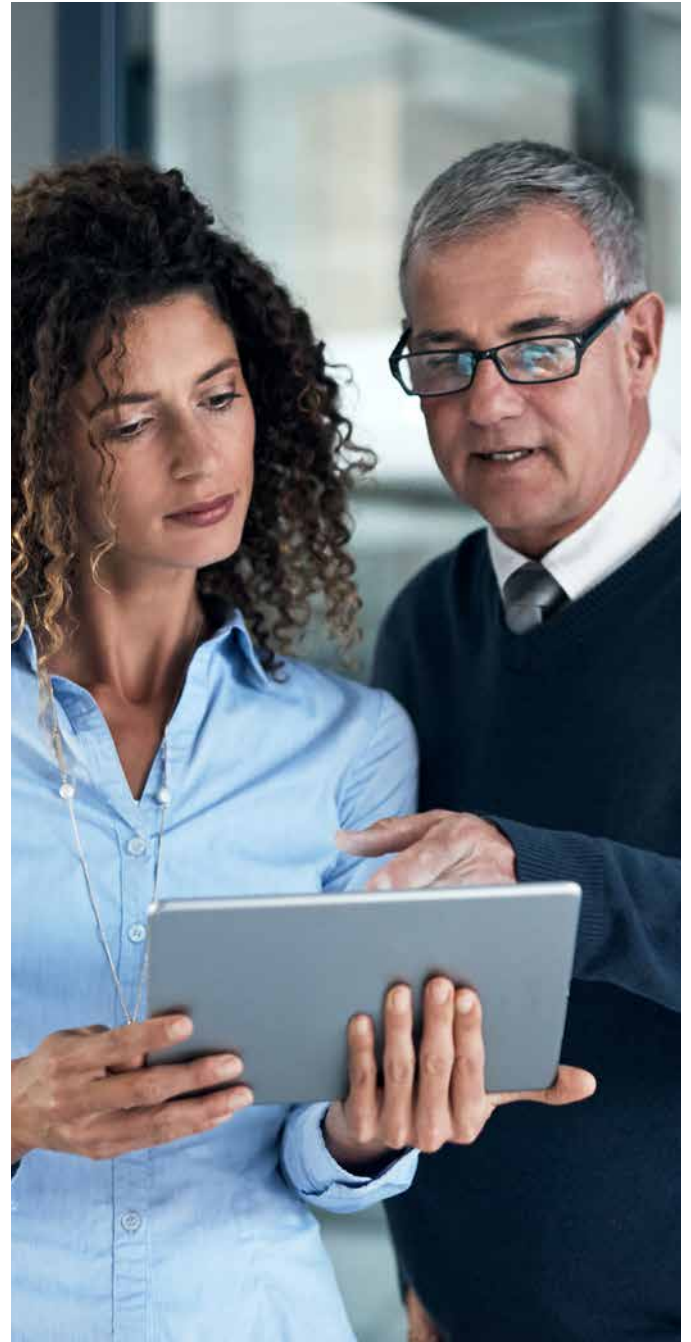

Helping You to Proactively
Manage Your Bank Fees

Weiland BRMedge from Fiserv enables corporate treasury to automate bank fee management and gain service transparency. The solution analyzes bank fees to identify discrepancies and benchmark services, allowing you to leverage volume and maximize your ROI. With all data warehoused in a single application, Weiland BRMedge gives you a clear monthly view of all banking fees and automates common procedures associated with capturing and calculating bank files.

Fiserv bank fee analysis experts do the work for you. We will help you maximize the value of the Weiland BRMedge system by working with your team to:

- Streamline business processes and enhance the value of Weiland BRMedge
- Eliminate unnecessary, redundant or unused services
- Identify and reduce fees associated with critical volume-based services
- Develop strategies to focus on alternative and less expensive service options

Having multiple banking relationships enables you to compare how each bank assesses fees. This knowledge will enable you to build stronger relationships with a broad selection of banks, better understand their services and create opportunities to reduce fees.

Why Partner With Fiserv?

- We will enable your organization to reduce monthly bank fees by ensuring your current fees match your planned activity, while matching all current contractual obligations.
- This allows your staff to optimize the Fiserv team, including Weiland BRMedge specialized expertise, to provide in-depth bank fee analysis, insights and recommendations.
- Our support will deliver full visibility and transparency to manage all your banking relationships, across all your accounts, in a proactive way that delivers recommendations and results. By partnering with you and leading discussions with your banks, we will unlock important savings for you.

Our Consulting Offering Includes

- Analysis of your existing usage of services, including product family structure and spend, volume, pricing and accounts
- Recommendations on optimal system use, details of identified cost savings and action plans
- Partnership to negotiate pricing with your banks
- Tracking and measuring progress of actual savings
