Atlas Business Lending

Offered in Partnership With StreetShares

Built by experienced business bankers and used by hundreds of financial institutions, Atlas Business Lending, offered in partnership with StreetShares, helps lenders leverage data-driven insights to deliver a superior digital banking experience for small-business borrowers.

Fiserv offers Atlas Business Lending through our partnership with StreetShares, an award-winning fintech that helps community lenders provide high-quality loans to businesses. Atlas Business Lending offers business borrowers a nimble digital experience, from the initial interaction with the application through decisioning, offers, closing and boarding. The platform can operate independently or with an existing Fiserv account processing system.

Seamless, End-to-End Lending Journey

Atlas Business Lending is designed to be simple for business owners. In just a few minutes, borrowers can go from application start to submission.

The borrower can create a new business loan request through an application branded with your logo and then manage the application from start to finish in the small-business owner hub. The borrower can check loan status, accept offers digitally and more, making the process convenient, engaging and positive.

Using a Clear and Simple Process, Atlas Business Lending Provides Financial Institutions the Ability to Offer Seamless Business Lending on Any Device.

Better Control of Your Sales Funnel

Atlas Business Lending helps your financial institution manage your sales funnel with data delivered from the core. The entire application process is managed within the solution with real-time decisioning tools. Documents can be captured and offers made – all on the platform. You can leverage Atlas Business Lending analytics to get a greater understanding of your borrowers.
