

SnapPay: Embedded Capital

Offer flexible financing to your customers – at no cost to you

SnapPay: Embedded Capital by Slope, adds a financing option directly into the SnapPay application. Your business customers pay over time. You get paid in full upfront.

How it works

- 1. Customer receives an invoice through SnapPay
Your customer sees Slope financing as a payment option alongside existing methods.
- 2. Customer applies and gets approved
Your customer applies for financing at checkout.
- 3. You get paid – Slope handles the rest
You get paid up front. Your customer repays Slope over their selected term (Net 30, 60, 90 or installments). Slope manages all collections and financing communication.

Why offer Embedded Capital?

Get paid upfront. You get paid right away; no waiting on customer payment cycles.

No cost to you. Merchants pay nothing additional to enable financing. The customer pays a transparent financing fee.

Zero credit risk. Slope assumes the credit risk. There's no merchant liability.

Increase sales. Drive conversion, GMV, AOV and repeat purchases with more flexible terms.

Retain customers. Flexible terms build loyalty and drive repeat purchasing.

A better customer experience

- Transparent fees – no hidden charges or factor rates
- Soft credit pull only – no impact on personal credit scores
- Extended terms (Net 30, 60, 90 or installments)
